“ Dear Chandrakantbhai and family, please accept our deepest condolences at this sad time for the whole family. We have very fond memories of the difficult but fun times we had with Bhanuben when she first came to England from Kisumu. We will always remember her for her great tenacity, sense of fairness and an unflinching sense of humour. Once Bhanuben start to giggle , it was impossible to stop her. And she also had a very strong sense of duty to her siblings which we all benefited from in those tough times. We will continue to have the fondest memories of Bhanuben. May she rest in peace as she transcends to a better place. Om Shanti shanti shanti. Mami, Sharda and Dilip Dave.

“ Shirmila,
We have never met, but Patricia Dickinson has asked for our prayers for you mother many times. I leave in a Benedictine monastery in Kansas. There are over 100 catholic sisters in my community and we all have held Bhanu in prayer.

Be assured of our continued support at this time of transition.
