“ Cheryl J. - Neighbor posted a condolence My heart goes out to Nancy, Kim & family and friends during this sad and difficult time. Please find comfort from Isaiah 33:24 - And no resident will say: "I am sick." God never intended mankind to get sick, grow old or die. Rev 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Soon almighty God, promises to resurrect those lost in death. Warmest regards.

“ Karol Welch - Church friend posted a condolence Billie was such a friendly lady. I remember her best at our Women to Women meetings & covered dish lunches at Clearview Baptist Church. One day my sister, Margaret brought fried okra. Miss Billie asked Margaret if she had any more okra. I knew Billie must be from the south! God bless your family.

“Mary Jarvis - Friend posted a condolence -----and HE will raise you up on Eagle's Wings (Psalm 91-4) - as I am so very sad and sorry at this time - I find myself feeling "Happy" for Billie - her beautiful soul has "flown" to be with Jesus. The horrific sufferings she has endured for the past 18 months are all gone and she is at rest and peace with Jesus - she loved the Lord and he Loved her. She was the best friend I ever had. She provided me with my "own room" all the times I was there visiting Kaye. I will always cherish all the good times we had going to yard sales, going to Bon Worth, eating at nice restaurants, going to the beach on occassion and all our visits every day I was there. She always played soothing spiritual songs in the car. Due to my arthritic conditions I wasn't able to get down to see her - but, did get the opportunity to talk to her on the phone. I have the memory of the last time we were together was at Michelle's wedding - that I cherish. She will leave a void in my heart for now - but, will meet again in God's good time. God Bless you all.

“ Dorothy Davis - Niece posted a condolence She was always glad to see me whenever I came home to visit. Always, always made sure you are well fed. She always gave me the best advice. I will miss the large family get together's she would throw when I came home. She said, she did it to make it easier on me to see the whole family. I will miss her beautiful and contagious smile, and most of all her wonderful hugs. I know she is at peace now and with Uncle Jim. I'm sure she will be throwing a family get together for all of the family in heaven. I love you so very much, Aunt "B"!!!
