

Bimla Kumrah

August 14, 1937 - October 24, 2022

Every Day Is a Gift
Yesterday is a memory,
tomorrow is a mystery,
and today is a gift,
which is why it is called the present.
What the caterpillar perceives is the end;
to the butterfly is just the beginning.
Everything that has a beginning has an ending.
Make your peace with that and all will be well.
~ A Buddhist Saying

Bimla Kumrah was born in Sialkot, Punjab, British India on August 14, 1927 to Roshan Lal

Trehan and Phoola Wathi. She was the second oldest of six siblings. Bimla got married in 1959 to Harbans Lal and was blessed with two sons. After marriage, she spent most of her adult life in Patel Nagar, Delhi, India. In the early 80's, she, along with her husband and two sons, settled and started a new life in New York. They later left NY to set their family roots in Orlando, Florida

She was a devoted sister, wife, mother, aunt, and grandmother. Bimla now reunites with her son Ashwani in heaven. She leaves behind many to cherish in her memories- a caring husband, Harbans, son, Praveen Kumrah, two daughter-in-laws, and six grandchildren.

In the hearts of those who loved you, you will always be there. As you were, you will always be, treasured forever in our memory.

To honor the family's wishes, there will only be a private service. Instead of flowers, the family prefers that you donate to any charity of your liking to honor her memory.

Tribute Wall

“ I miss you mom, love you forever ”

Praveen KUMRAH - October 24, 2025 at 07:35 PM