

Blake Donaldson Hartill

March 24, 2010

Blake Donaldson Hartill, 72, of St. Petersburg, died March 24. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. he moved to Gulfport at age 2 and graduated from Boca Ciega High School. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps and earned a degree in finance from the University of Florida.

Blake was vice president at the former Landmark Union Trust Bank and went on to work as a certified financial analyst and broker at Williams Securities before founding Gold Stock Research. He worked until he suffered a stroke in 2007. Blake was a voracious reader, history buff and crossword puzzle-extraordinaire. He enjoyed cooking, Gator sports and walks with his beloved dog, Hogan. Blake was preceded in death by his daughter, Jennifer, son, Elliot. He is survived by his wife, Christy, and daughters, Carrie Hartill, of Tampa, and Robin Hartill, of Bradenton. A service will take place at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, March 31, at Pasadena Community Church, 227-70th St. So., St. Petersburg. Contributions can be made to Friends of Strays, friendsofstrays.com

Tribute Wall

“ The family of Blake Donaldson Hartill uploaded a photo

August 19, 2019 at 12:00 AM

“ Erich and Barbara Heintzen - former neighbors on Robin Rd. posted a condolence Christy - Our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family at Blake's death. We enjoyed talking with him as he walked his dog. We will remember him as a good neighbor.

Erich and Barbara Heintzen - former neighbors on Robin Rd. - March 28, 2010 at 12:00 AM