

Brian James Fox

August 13, 2014

Brian James Fox, 50, died suddenly Wednesday, August 13, 2014, in Florida.

Brian and his loving wife Jennifer were married in 2008 in Las Vegas at a ceremony attended by many family and friends. They often returned there to celebrate special occasions. For the past three years they resided in Thousand Oaks, CA. Prior to that they made their home in St. Petersburg, FL.

Brian and Jennifer loved spending time together and raising their two adopted Greyhounds and their Beagle/Jack Russel mix.

While in Florida, Disney World was one of their favorite spots to spend the weekends, and they enjoyed sharing time with relatives and friends at the various Disney parks.

Brian was passionate about his collection of Legos. He also had a childhood desire to be a fireman, and still had dreams of owning his own fire engine.

He was an active supporter of their local food bank in CA.

Brian was born with a heart defect and he underwent many surgeries. The medical teams in FL and Boston performed procedures and were amazed at his ability to recover and thrive after these innovative operations.

Predeceased by parents Joseph & Jean (Voiland) Fox.

Loving brother of John of Redwood Shores CA, Kathleen (Bryan) Malloch of Glendale AZ, Mary (Christopher) Goike of Macomb MI, Virginia (Joseph) Zatina of Benicia CA, Laura (Randy) Gohl of Marine City MI, Thomas of Peoria AZ, Gerald (Karen) of Clinton Twp, MI, and Alan of Clinton Twp, MI.

Beloved uncle to many nieces and nephews.

Brian is also survived by Jennifer's parents Barbara and Ray Dion, and brother Keith (Emily).

A funeral mass for Brian will be held on Monday August 18, 2014 at 9:30 A.M at Our Lady's Chapel at the Cathedral of St. Jude, 5815 5th Ave N., St. Petersburg, FL.
