FOOTPRINTS IN THE SAND

One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord.

Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky. In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand.

Sometimes there were two sets of footprints, other times there was one only.

This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life, when I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat, I could see only one set of footprints, so I said to the Lord ,

“ Kelly Patterson - wife posted a condolence It has been 3 monthes since Brian left this earth his birthday just past and not a day goes by that he is not thought of and remembered. When I think of Brian I think of his kind loving personality I know in heaven he is making the angels smile with his bright outlook on life. I know he is with us everyday watching as our children grow and try to heal from the loss of his presents. Brian you will forever be remembered and loved in our hearts I'm happy you're at peace but do still miss you soooooo much. Ilove you always!!!!

“ Kelly Patterson - wife posted a condolence I met Brian at age 15 we dated for 2years before getting married,I feel blessed to have known Brian and shared my life with him for 16years. Brian was very kind and caring to everyone he met,he always looked for the good in everyone and everything. I will always remember his bright smile and warm heart, I will do my best to make sure our children remember all the good things about their dad I will speak of his kindness often and teach our young daughter of her dad as well as she will not have the chance to know her daddy as little Brian and Miranda do. I see Brian in our children our son looks just like his dad and is so much like him in so many ways,so even though Brian is no longer with us his spirit lives on in our children,and I know he will be watching over us all. Brian we love you and you will be in our hearts forever,I will enjoy the memories of the times we shared together. I will always be grateful to have had the pleasure of being your wife and the mother of your three beautiful children.I will get through the days knowing you are at peace and watching over us. I love you always and you will be missed dearly everyday for the rest of my life, LOVE, YOUR LOVING WIFE KELLY PATTERSON

“ Sandy - Mother-in-law posted a condolence Although Brian was my son-in-law, he was the son of my heart. I will miss him so much. He was always so kind and considerate. His family meant the world to him. I consider him one of my own children and will always look at him that way. I will always remember his energetic way of life and his smiles. I will always smile as I remember the stories that he told and his mischievousness at times. I can still see the gleam in his eye when he came up with a plan. I am sending hugs and kisses his loved ones. As a family, we will console each other and make each other laugh with shared memories of Brian. The family can take comfort in the fact that he loved each and everyone of us. May God Bless.

“ Peggy L. Wagner - Aunt posted a condolence Those we love don't go away, They walk beside us every day, Unseen, unheard, but always near, Still loved, still missed and very dear. Love, Aunt Peggy I took a trip to Heaven But only in my mind... I wanted to know what it's like To leave all you love behind. So I closed my eyes, and started to see... Just how beautiful Heaven can be. I could see the pearly gates of white and behind them was the most radiant light. I saw an angel as she was passing by so incredibly beautiful that a tear fell from my eye. Everyone looked perfect and with the angels they did sing There are no earthly words to describe the beauty of their wings. As I sat on a bench in the most incredible garden... I asked God for all of my sins to be pardoned I took one last look at all of the beauty around And when I opened my eyes, it was peace that I found.
