“ We are blessed to have had Bryan as a neighbor and friend at Ocean Keyes. One other thing Bryan enjoyed, in addition to going to breakfast with Dave, was going to LaBellaAmie Vineyards where we spent time enjoying the outdoor vineyards, dancing and music. I have attached a picture of Brian and Linda dancing at the Vineyard. Brian you will be sincerely missed.

“ Bryan was one of my favorite cousins who taught me how to chew tobacco while riding on the back of a tractor (I swallowed), what happens to you when your bull ran me into the electrized fence and introduced me to the pleasures of drinking moonshine. May you rest in peace. You have lived a worthy life and will missed.

“ Cousin, because of your ability to drive a tractor, I still can't stomach chew tobacco. We drank moonshine and I burned the brakes off of your bicycle going down the hill in front of the farmhouse. May you rest in peace and rejoice in a life well lived.

“ Not having ever lived in Uniontown I did not get to spend that much time with Bryon. We would only get to see each other yearly when our wives dictated that a visit was a must. To me Byron was hard-headed and opionated which, somehow, seemed to match perfectly with my grumpy and anti-social disposistion. He was upfront, honest, extremely likable and an overall a good man. I will miss him.

“ I can't count the times Bryan and Roger would jump in the golf cart and ride up to Starbucks. It was their morning ritual. I often wondered why it took them so long but I think they were just galivanting around the beach and enjoying life. It just won't be the same with out you Bryan. You lit up any room when you entered. Your friendship was so dear to us. We will always treasure the wonderful memories. Our prayers to Linda and the entire family. Next time you come to the beach, we will have a celebration to honor Bryans memory. Jill and Roger Bramblett

“ Over the many years that I knew him, the only thing that surpassed Bryan's tremendous smile, was his deep pride in his wife and children. May he rest in peace 🙏 with such a treasured legacy.
