

Calvin L. Bounds

March 14, 2016

Nine days before his 83rd Birthday, Cal went to be with the Lord, leaving his pain and broken body behind.

He was born in Oak Park, IL to Chester and Ebba Bounds and was the third of five children.

The family moved to St. Petersburg the fall of 1950 where Cal finished High School and attended St. Petersburg College. He joined the Air Force and was stationed in Japan and later at Mac Dill Air Force Base in Tampa, FL.

He worked for the St. Petersburg Times in the Sports Dept. and also as a proof reader.

He spent a year in New York City proof reading for major columnists before going into sales positions with Kirby Stevens Lighting and then Real Estate.

Cal has two living children, son Larry Runyan, Wooster, OH and daughter India Kudla, St. Petersburg area, four grand-children, a sister and two brothers.

After retirement he needed something to do so he drove a school bus for Pinellas County and then drove for the Airport Shuttle Service.

Cal's passion was playing Pool and he was an active league player lovingly referred to as "Ole Monkey".

In lieu of flowers, please give to your favorite charity.

A memorial service will be held a Bay Pines Cemetery on Friday, April 1, 2016, at 12:45 pm.

“ Tom & Connie Allison - Work Friend posted a condolence It was with a sadden heart when we learned of Cal's passing. It was our honor to have known and worked with Cal at Steven's Lighting. He had such a big heart and a warm smile each day he came into the shop/office. His kinds words each morning as he sipped a fresh hot cup of coffee, made us feel we were off to a great day, then off he went to consult with his clients, bringing back big sales for the Company! What a GREAT guy and genuine friend! God bless!

“ Ted Lee - friend posted a condolence I met Cal in January, 1957 when we both were attending St Petersburg Jr College. We had a group of guys who had been in the service and enjoyed a beer or two at Chill's Bar in Gulfport after classes. We kept in touch over the years by getting together for lunch several times a year. Cal was a great guy and a good friend. It is difficult getting older and losing so many friends. It was a pleasure spending time with Cal and I will certainly miss him now. Ted lee
