“ I met Carl two years ago when I moved into the Community where he resided.
He had a great sense of humor. Carl showed a gentle nature and always had time to sit and talk. He had wonderful stories of his time working with the Knights of Columbus. Carl obviously was proud of his family and would often share with me some of their accomplishments, his face would light up whenever they were mentioned. Carl had a genuine kindness that he shared with everyone he met. One of his favorite things he loved to share was his peanut brittle recipe and regale us with stories of purchasing 100 lb bags of peanuts. Carl was a dear friend who made me feel welcome here. All who knew him will miss him and his quick smile.

“ I shall surely miss the conversations I had with Carl at the Knights of Columbus Hall. His many experiences were certainly a joy to hear about. Hopefully, one day I will hear more.
