

Carlos Augusto Gonzalez

December 13, 1950 - October 5, 2021

Carlos Augusto Gonzalez was born in Bogota, Colombia on December 13, 1950 to Luis and Lucila Gonzalez. He went on to be with the Lord on October 5, 2021. He is lovingly remembered by his family of 2 brothers, Luis and Manuel Gonzalez as well as 10 Nieces and Nephews and several great nieces and nephews who love him.

His life was defined by simple pleasures he held dear to his heart.

Although he loved the U.S. he still had a great desire for one day to return to his beautiful Colombia. He was extremely patriotic and had a great passion for the music that represented what was deep in his soul. He loved the Lord and was grateful in knowing that his beloved parents were in heaven waiting for him to be re-united with them one day.

Tio, as he is referred to by his beloved family, loved unconditionally. He was warm, inviting, cheerful, protective, persistent, determined and he would always greet you with an unwavering look that let you know you were the most important person to him at that moment. That his unconditional love for you was present and active. He would embrace you with the warmest hugs. Tio, was always in pursuit of one day having a family of his own to raise and love. He was extremely Charismatic and many often referred to him as the Mayor of Longwood and Altamonte Springs. Tio never met a stranger.

He has impacted so many with his laughter and beautiful spirit, that life without him will have a great void. Thank you Tio, for the legacy of love you have left us with.

The family of Carlos Augusto Gonzalez invites you to leave a message of condolence on the Tribute Wall created in his loving memory.
