“ ITO as he was known, was a single father who raised two daughters. He loved his brothers and sisters unconditionally and to his eyes all his nieces and nephews were the best. He saw in food a way to show everyone he loved how important they were for him. A Proud VIETNAM VETERAN who's story never had and end. He was a great leader at his hometown barrio "CLAUSELLS" where he used to coordinate free summer camps for the kids to attend and learn different sports and educate them they free excursions around PUERTO RICO just to make sure they new and understood what was the history of our island. For that and much more you will always be on our heart. GOD bless you.
