“ Mamma embraced and loved life to its fullest no matter what. She was a strong willed and courageous warrior that lived life her way, she was my truest friend, always there to lend a helping hand, always willing try something new, and loved you unconditionally.

She was a great cook that taught me much. She loved music ("Mamma la canzone piu' bella sei tu"), she loved to travel, she loved the ocean, and was always mesmerized with the progression of nature. Birds singing and blossoms bursting open with their fragrance and vibrant colors. She loved the sun on her face and the breeze through her hair.

Mamma loved the "antique ways", as she would say in broken English. She had the loudest sneezes that would scare you and then she would laugh. She had a great sense of style and was a classy gracious lady. Her smile would light up a room.

You were not afraid, as you transitioned to Everlasting Peace, walking with God. Mommy, you looked so beautiful! Gods' grace and power was shining from within and you were beaming and at peace.

Mommy you are and will be missed. Ti amo per sempre. La tua Cichochi.

P.S. mail came today and you won a cruise to the Bahamas! Little do they know that your journey has been to travel to the Glorious Kingdom of Heaven! Love you

P.S. My Mother-in-law was probably the toughest woman I have ever known. In the last few years she endured countless medical interventions and weekly dialysis. She dealt with it with great courage and will be remembered by me for her tenacity and personal generosity for us. Go in peace.
