“ I makes me sad when Carla and I have Sammy over to play at our house and know that you are not there to share it with. Your Sammy days always made you so happy. One of my best memories is how crazy we made you when we all got together for birthdays or the holidays, the laughing and commotion of all us our spouses, grandchildren and great grandchildren, but how happy you really were underneath. I always saw the smile of knowing what a great thing that you and Dad created. I also remember how you would always be so welcoming of all the stragglers, friends and anyone who didn't have have a place to be. Give a great big hug to Dad and Pat. We miss you and love you.
