

Carol Del Corso

March 12, 1938 - August 9, 2016

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and friend, Carol Del Corso passed away peacefully in Lake Mary, FL on August 9th, 2016. She was 78. Carol was preceded in death by her loving husband, Gerald. She is survived by her three children, two grandchildren, and many dear friends and relatives. She loved dancing, watching sports, listening to Sinatra, sleeping through movies, and sharing too many photos of her grandchildren. Carol was a gift to this world and an easy person to love. She spent her time here dedicated to the care and happiness of others. With that in mind, in lieu of flowers, donations to Bags of Hope Central Florida (<http://www.bohcfl.info/about.html>) would be appreciated.

The funeral Mass will be held on August 20th at 11:30 at All Souls Catholic Church Historic Chapel - 800 S. Oak Avenue, Sanford, FL.

I am overwhelmed at the beautiful photo Montage of my dear friend. Carol was the ultimate gentle soul...beautiful spirit with a giving heart. I have been missing her a long time now, but she will never be forgotten. I am comforted in the thought that she is with Jerry her love and her beloved mom Minine. Rest in heavenly peace my dear friend with all my love. To Carolyn, Sal and Geralyn.. all the Ranuskas send their love and deepest sympathy.
