

Carol Sue Dickerson

June 17, 1950 - February 15, 2022

Carol Sue Dickerson was born June 17, 1950, and went home to be with her Lord and Savior on February 15, 2022.

Carol is survived by her two sons, Matthew (Noreena) Svoboda and Andrew Svoboda, her two grandchildren, Mikaylen Svoboda and Carsten Svoboda, her sister Nancy Postma, and her husband Eddie. She loved spending time with her grandchildren and was a very active part of their lives.

Carol had a strong personal relationship with the Lord and was an active member of Orlando Grace Church. Her career consisted of teaching piano and working with homeschool students. Her students excelled, partially due (no doubt) to Carol's commitment to her students and their parents to give them the absolute best she had to offer.

Carol was loved and respected by everyone who knew her. She will be missed immensely and has left a void with family and friends that will never be filled.

The family of Carol Sue Dickerson invites you to leave a message of condolence on the Tribute Wall created in her loving memory.

“ I am grateful to social media for making me aware, however tragic, of Carol's passing. I will always remember her fondly as my piano teacher, chorus teacher, and English teacher. I can think of no higher praise for a teacher than that she teaches others to love what she loves through her deeds as well as her words. It was true of Carol. She was a bright light, and I am praying for her friends and family in this time of grief. Dona nobis pacem.”

“ I never actually met Carol and Eddie. However, when my nephew sent me a prayer request to pray for Carol and a picture of her and Eddie, the Lord and mediately planted them deeply in my heart. It was a privilege and honor to pray for them. While I know they have a deep loss, I also know that heaven has been blessed to add this sweet and lovely person to the great cloud of witnesses. My prayers continue for Eddie and all the family.”

“ I was in Orlando in January and Carol contacted me so we met for lunch one day. Although we chatted thru Facebook, I hadn't seen her for years but it was as if we had never stopped having lunch together. We talked and laughed for several hours and prayed together in the parking lot before we went our separate ways. I will be forever grateful for that gift. She was a beautiful, gracious woman who was pouring into Malachi's life in ways that I can't from KC. Her husband, Eddie, is also giving sacrificially to Malachi. Thank you so much, Eddie, for all you've done to make Malachi feel special and know his worth. I grieve with you the loss of your precious wife. Our deepest condolences to Eddie, Matt, Andrew and all of her grandchildren and extended family.

“ We have known Carol for a long time. We used to stay with her in her apartment when she was single. Once she went to Europe with kids and we stayed in her apartment for two weeks. It was great. After she and Eddie got married we visited them also. We loved Carol She was so bubbly and smiley and shared many things with us. Wish we could have been with her near the end of this life. Eddie, I know you are mourning the loss of Carol but you will see again in Heaven. It just does not seem possible that God took her. He did not want her to suffer. Covid is a nasty virus. We love you Eddie!!

“ Vibrant and full of life, smiling through trials, persevering and diligent in her work, loving and loyal to friends and family, an inspiration to me ❤️ We had lunch together, meeting in Mt Dora in December and talked for hours catching up like friends do!!! She loved her Eddie and said, “He’s so good to me!” Bragged on Andrew and Matt was excited to have her granddaughter with them! I loved and admired Carol and am looking forward to spending Eternity with her! Just a little jealous that she got to go to Heaven first ❤️😭

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I have many fond memories of your mom. From cleaning for her, decorating shirts, to having dinners together and functions at school. She was a wonderful person, great music teacher and a good friend. She loved her family! She will be sadly missed!

“ Carol will forever be etched in my girls and my mind. Her love for her students and their families was beyond imaginable. We can't even begin to fathom the grief her family bears as this loss feels so great. We know she loved her Lord and Savior and it was evident in how she taught. She loved so beautifully and was an amazing example to all she met. Our sincerest sympathies to you all. I am forever blessed by her and look forward to being reunited in Our heavenly home.
