“ Carol it's me Ed I miss you already tried to do this once and my battery ran out was telling me to shorten it up. I'm going to miss you something awful since the beginning we were with Grandma and grandpap couch and Mom of course and Aunt Margie those were the three people women along with Mom with whom we bonded so I thank them too but as you have heard me say many times thank God for Grandma and Grandpa and Aunt Margie. We we were together from the 1st and did everything under the sun together even after you were married to skip we would talk often and after our usual questions a lot of them you got answered the first minute you saw heaven. I am looking forward to that day will miss you everyday from then out till then and want you to know that I would very much like to see you at our date at the Eastern Gate when it comes my time the Lord permitting that is. New paragraph I don't think I have to tell you but I'm very happy that you're not hurting anymore and that home Grandma and Grandpa and Rebecca Mrs Peters this is Smith next door all the people on McRoberts Road with you and I thought we owned. I will see I will see you then God bless you and tell Cheryl I love her but she already knows but tell Jesus and I really looking forward to seeing them face to face always love you and miss you your brother Ed sympathy and condolences to the family of course Skip and Rick and Lori Mandy Pearl and Rick's kids and enjoyed their response you would have appreciated it also again I love you goodbye sweetie

“ To have Carol in my life was such a blessing. I will always miss sitting next to her in church, hearing her say “my Mandy” when she was talking about her granddaughter Amanda, and seeing my daughter Paisley in her arms. You were so loved ☐
