“ Dear Aunt Carol, I will never forget growing up with you as my Aunt and then years later you married my Uncle Archie. Doing crafts, going to the craft stores with you and sitting on the floor going through bins or craft clearances and people looking at us like we were crazy... I still do this :) I drive past the house when I'm on the east side of Orlando. Make the circle around all of our old homes. I really miss those times. I wish I was there with you in the end. Everyone's gone now. Hope all of you are in heaven together. I Love you 💜 I have a picture of all of you smiling and waving at the camera, now when I look at it... it's like all of you are waving good bye.
