

Carol Ann Perkins

October 16, 1945 - September 9, 2014

Carol A. Perkins, 68, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, September 9, 2014. Carol lived most of her life in Hoboken, New Jersey and the last several months in Heathrow, Florida with her devoted brother and his family.

She was an inter-library loans supervisor at the S.C. Williams Library at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken for 35 years before retiring 7 years ago.

Carol is predeceased by her parents, Florence (nee Gutman) and Buford Williamson, and her loving sister, Janice Williamson. She is survived by her sons, Thomas and Todd Perkins, her brother, David Williamson, 4 grandchildren, 4 nieces, 3 nephews and several cousins.

Funeral services will be held in New Jersey.

Donations in Carol's memory may be made to the Caroline Vandemark Fund for Brain and Spine Tumor Research, a Hackensack University Medical Center Foundation program.

Tribute Wall

JV

“ Carol you will be dearly missed especially during our Christmas dinners. You were a truly loving caring person. I know you are in heaven looking down on all of us. I will play that you you have peace. Love, thr Varga Family jeanie varga - September 13, 2014 at 07:37 AM

JA

“ Aunt Carol, you will be missed greatly. You have been such a huge part of our lives and will always have a special place in our hearts.
Jackie

Jackie - September 13, 2014 at 06:48 AM