I enjoyed getting to know Carole on 365 and then on Facebook. Her photos are wonderful and depict the things she loved so much in her life, her family, FL, nature and her dog Daisy. The world is a little less bright with her not in it. Deepest sympathy to her family.

I met Carole on 365 and found connection with her with her love of the new and the challenging as well as beauty. It goes to show somethings happen without our knowledge and we are the poorer for it. However, it has happened that we caught up and now I know where she has gone! My sincere and heartfelt sympathy!

“ THE BROKEN WING
Since the day you left this earth,
My heart still longs for you.
I love you more than ever.
I know you're feeling it too.
I feel my wings are broken.
I am feeling not so strong.
I wish you were here beside me
In the place where you belong.
Every day I'll get much stronger,
Living my life as if you're here.
You dwell deep inside my heart
Where I keep you ever so near..
Until one day my little wings
Will again be able to mend.
It is then I will fly to heaven
And be with you again!

Carole has left each of us with loving memories to be with us today, tomorrow and forever. Even though your shadows of today have been darkened, know that Carole is now in the loving presence of God who has taken away her pain and worries and given her peace, comfort, love and rest. “ Carole was a beautiful person with the heart of a writer and the soul of a poet. She saw beauty in nature and music. She adored her family and cherished her mother. In turn, her children and grandchildren lavished their love on her. Carole and I met online, courtesy of Amazon reviews. We were online ne and phone buddies for years before we finally met. Our friendship continued with emails and my two trips to Florida from New Jersey. She had a huge heart filled with compassion. The world is a little darker without the light she brought to it.

“Have courage for the great sorrows of life and patience for the small ones; and when you have laboriously accomplished your daily task, go to sleep in peace. God is awake.” --Victor Hugo

"Life is just a collection of memories and memories are just like starlight ... they go on forever." --C. W. McCall

"It is not how much you do, but how much love you put into the doing that matters." --Mother Teresa

Colossians 3:12-15 – As God’s chosen ones, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience. If anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; As the Lord has forgiven you, so you must also forgive. Clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body.

“ Dear Mom, You will be missed so greatly. I didn't want you to leave us, but I know that your pain and suffering is gone and that is the only thing that gives me comfort. I will never forget the unconditional love and support you gave me through the years. Even during the not so good times, you were always there for me with understanding and compassion. I'll never forget our girls trips, going to the Nutcracker every Christmas and all of our inside jokes. The holidays will never be the same without you and your fabulous cooking and presence. Thank you for being such a loving and doting "Mee Maw" to my three girls, Hannah, Haley and Hope. Also Kirk will miss his "Mammy C" tremendously. I could go on and on about how sweet you were. I know that everybody who knew you felt that in your spirit. I will love you "forever and a day"
