

Cecil Charles

March 2, 1944 - February 7, 2026

Cecil “Charlo” Charles passed away on February 7, 2026. He is survived by his loving wife, Linda, his son Pernell and his wife Angela and his daughter Patrice and her husband, Sean. He left behind seven grandchildren, Anthony and his wife, Teleah, Jacob, Kyan, Aniya, Jaxson, Jayvyn, and Judah.

Charlo was born in Siparia, Trinidad and lived a life filled with friends, family, and a love of music. He was a craftsman by trade and a brilliant woodworker. Charlo was the life of every party as a dj, music producer, and fan of music of every genre. Coming from a big family he was surrounded by nieces, nephews, and cousins, He would share with them stories of the old days and loved to make people laugh.

He loved cooking and wild meat and was a master baker during the holiday seasons. His home was always open to friends and family in need. He is loved by many and will be remembered for his presence in so many lives.

In lieu of flowers please consider making a donation to Straight Street homeless ministry at www.straightst.org
