“ There's no one memory I have, only all good memories of this wonderful friend. I miss hanging out. I miss him grading everything. I miss his crazy rant phone calls. He was always there for me reminding me of just how good life is. I don't like goodbye's so, see you later Chad. Peace. ”

“ No words can express how I feel about Chad Dixon. However, I will try by saying he was more than a friend, he was my brother. He was the most loyal person I ever knew and he was ALWAYS there for me even when I had not been there for him. I could always count on Chad to give his honest opinion and his genuine insight was priceless! I am going to really miss Chad Dixon and I will always love him. He is my brother!

“ I am Chads oldest Cousin on his moms side Cindi, and I live in California. I was the big sister, he didn't have. He would call me for advice and make me laugh, and talk my ear off about his parents and mostly about all his friends, who he said was His Family. Thank u so much to all of Chads close friends who r helping my Uncle Gus and Aunt Colleen get through this Tragic time in there life's, Chad will be greatly miss 😭

“ So many fun nights grilling, playing games, talking. So happy to have been able to share in all that. I am a better person to have known you Chad. When Romy crossed her bridge, you are in a boat floating to her.

“ Chad knew the greatness around him and always invested in his friends. He was the glue in our community and loved his friends like family. He always came right from the heart and helped everyone be the best they could be. All of us that call Chad 'friend' or 'brother' are better for having known him and will have a peice of him with us always. With love In Christ, Michael V. Sarricchio

“ Chad, I hope that you are at peace in heaven with our Romy. I'm missing you and feeling the emptiness in my life that will never be filled. You made me laugh until I cried, you frustrated me like no other, and you loved me like no other. I will miss you more than words can express. I will continue to cry tears of joy for having had you in my life. I love u and your family. See u at beefs Nixon <3
