

Chad Marlow

May 26, 1968 - May 21, 2019

Chad Allen Marlow, 50 of Winter Garden, Florida lost his battle with colon cancer May 21, 2019. Chad was born May 26, 1968 in New Castle, Indiana to James and Linda Marlow.

He is survived by his sons Brady and Brett Marlow, parents Linda (Penn) and James Marlow, brother James (Clay) Marlow, sister Jodi (Marlow) Wooten along with her husband William (Bill) Wooten and sons Collin, Cole, Carter Wooten, and many loving family and friends.

Chad is preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Lola (Nix) and Benjamin (Frank) Penn, and his paternal grandparents Reba (Mills) and Joseph Marlow.

Chad graduated class of 1986 from New Castle Chrysler High School in New Castle Indiana, then attended Ball State University and majored in communications. In 1991, Chad began an over 10 year career with Cedar Point Amusement Park in Sandusky, Ohio. To be closer to family in 2001, Chad moved to Indianapolis and managed the Hoosier Country Store in the Indianapolis Airport. Then, in 2005 Chad and his then wife, JoElle (Gray), moved to Orlando where Chad enjoyed working for Universal Studios as a rides host on The Mummy. Chad then began his successful career with Cracker Barrel as a Retail and Training Manager where he remained until his diagnosis.

Chad enjoyed taking full advantage of all Florida has to offer and frequented the theme parks, water parks, and beaches. His greatest joy came from his two sons Brady and Brett. There was hardly a time you would be able to have a conversation with him before he pulled out his phone to show off multiple pictures of the boys.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to a savings account set-up for Chad's sons Brady and Brett. Donations can be made at www.paypal.com, sending to the email address of neptunenancy@gmail.com. All money will be directed into a college savings account for the boys.

“ I just wanted to say a few words about my very good friend Chad, we met 11 years ago when he became my manager at Crackerbarrel we instantly formed a work friendship which in later years grew to where Chad became one of my best friends, his personality was unique, he was funny,clever and kind hearted. We had many fun times together and would meet often for lunch, and would talk for ages on the phone, even when he was diagnosed with Colon Cancer Chad would put everyone else first. We shared some great memories of funny things that happened and would talk about them to give us a laugh. Chad was always laughing I will never forget that laugh, like him unique. His jokes and his impressions especially the Simpsons were hysterical. But what I remember most was his Love for his Boys, Brady and Bret he was so proud of them both he would talk about them non stop and "yes" the photos would come out. Chad fought so hard to live for his boys and sadly lost that fight, but please always remember he never gave up. My dear dear friend Chad I am going to miss you so much words cannot say, but I promise you I will keep checking in on Brady and Bret to see how they are doing. I will miss and Love you so much and will never forget you or our friendship, the memories will live on.

Out of pain but in our hearts love you Buddy xxx Linda Stanford - Fox

“ I first met Chad when he started at Mummy, I was still figuring out who I was and my place in everything. I have never really been an individual to fit in, or have many friends, but Chad always saw the best in people, and always had encouraging words. Chad was really the first person to make me feel like an integral part of the team and not just the outcast. I've made many friends through my years at Universal, but Chad was one of a handful I was proud to boast about his accomplishments and keep up with him throughout his time at Cracker Barrel and we always joked about a possible return to the parks. I was very fortunate to have known him, and he definitely made an impact in my life that I try to pay forward. To those that were closer with him, I both envy the time you had, but empathize with the loss you feel. Keep positive.

“ Dear Chad...you were a great story and joke teller, your working relationship with my wife, Linda, was one to be treasured. They worked together for years. Chad was a kind and sensitive guy. He was very work oriented and took his responsibilities to heart. Chad has 2 lovely boys and extended family, and wanted them to be in his life forever. Such a sad time for the x wife and the boys .. we wish them comfort and healing. God bless all who now feel the loss of the life that Chad Brought to everyone he touched . May his memory rest and let his spirit soar.

“ Chad was my best friend, we would call each other, send one another cards, he was a true friend.... There will never be anyone like him.
He always talked about his boys and I could tell he was a proud dad.
He lives his whole family, and talked about them often.
Prayers going out to his family.
