“ Chandu

I am so sorry that I missed your funeral, time didnt work out due to my work schedule.

I am happy that you're not in pain anymore and I truly enjoyed taking care of you.

You taught me how to appreciate my patients and communicate with them in deeper level.

Thank you so much for all your jokes, coffee obsessions, western movies, letting me measure your sugar using only pinky & middle fingers, always telling me you're okay just to make me worry-free, teaching me indian culture & language. I love you and rest in pain..

P.s Don't watch too many western movies up there, save for me so we can watch together.

also thank you Bindu for always welcoming me with her warmth of smile & hugs. I felt like I was part of your family.
