

Charles B. D'Alessandro

October 16, 1944 - July 1, 2015

It is with deep and heavy sadness that we announce the death of Charles D'Alessandro, whom passed away on July 1st, 2015.

Charles was born in 1944 in Brooklyn, N.Y. He was the loving son of the late Charles and Aurora D'Alessandro.

In 1963 he enlisted in the United States Army and served a tour of duty in Vietnam.

He moved to Florida in 1973 where he worked for Eastern Airlines. He than was employed for 25 years by the United States Postal Service until his retirement in 2003.

Nothing brought him more pleasure and joy than to spend quality time with his three beautiful grandchildren.

Charlie always made friends easily, and his humor, his laugh and his stories will be greatly missed by all.

Charles is survived by his beloved wife Pamela D'Alessandro of Winter Park, Fl. & their three beautiful children Craig D'Alessandro, Chris D'Alessandro & Dawn Gerrol. He is proudly survived by his loving grandchildren Anna Marie Gerrol, Craig Jr. D'Alessandro & Christian D'Alessandro. Brother to Rosemary Lucido & Linda Martelli.

Funeral services will be held at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Winter Park, Fl. on Monday July 13th at 9:30 A.M.

In Lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Vietnam Veterans of America at VVA.org

Tribute Wall

RL

“ Charlie,
It has been 27 days since you left us, and my pain and sadness is indispicable. There is a void that will never be replaced.
I miss our "catch-up" chats that only a brother and sister could appreciate.
I am however, so very thankful we got to visit during Easter Week and the chance to speak to you just a few hours before you we're called home.
Rest in Peace little brother and know you will live in my heart forever

rosemary lucido - July 28, 2015 at 01:55 PM

LM

“ Charlie, I miss you more and more every day. Still can't believe you're gone, just seems like a bad dream. I was hoping to get to Florida to spend time with you and the family, but that wasn't in the cards. The one thing I regret is snot getting to see you. There were times when I would be very upset because we haven't talked for awhile, but whenever you called me I would smile and forget that ai was mad at you. Even though there was distance between us there was never was a day that I didn't think of you. You have a great family and hopefully we will keep in touch. You have three beautiful grandchildren and I know you were a proud grandfather and they were lucky to have had you in their life.
Rest in peace dear brother and You will always be in my heart forever. Love you big brother

Linda Martelli - July 26, 2015 at 03:43 PM

CD

“ Dear dad,

I cant believe your gone. Just like that... gone. When I visit mom I walk up and there's your car... It just doesn't seem right that you won't be getting in it anymore and driving around town making your rounds. The void that you left is one that can never be filled. It's certainly the greatest loss I have ever experianced since I've been alive. I spoke to you the day before you passed and your last words to me were... "Talk to you later." I certainly hope so. I love and miss you pops... Rest in peace...Don't worry about us one bit... Just rest.

Chris D'Alessandro - July 17, 2015 at 12:12 AM

ML

“ Mike & Aristeia Lucido lit a candle in memory of Charles B. D'Alessandro

Mike & Aristeia Lucido - July 13, 2015 at 05:56 PM

AM

“ I did not see Charlie as often as I would have liked. He welcomed me into the family and always had a kind word for all. I saw him as an optimist and gentle man that loved both his immediate and extended family. He served his country with dignity and honor in a time of great turmoil. The world was a better place with Charles D'Alessandro in it. Pam and family, please accept my sincere condolences as he will be greatly missed.

Art Martelli - July 13, 2015 at 09:05 AM

LM

“ Lorenzo Morizio lit a candle in memory of Charles B. D'Alessandro

Lorenzo Morizio - July 11, 2015 at 04:12 PM

CP

“ Charlie and I spoke on the phone the day before he passed. He was the kind of guy you liked from the minute you met him, many years ago. Quick to smile and a pleasure to be with. He was always involved with his family. Always there for everyone. His passing will leave a huge void for many. We are all grateful for the years he was here.

love,

Charlie & Sandy Pasch

charlie pasch - July 11, 2015 at 03:12 PM

KC

“ Kristen Cole lit a candle in memory of Charles B. D'Alessandro

kristen Cole - July 10, 2015 at 11:49 PM

KC

“ I have known Charlie and his family since I was 17 years old and became friends with Craig. he was a very sweet and funny man. I remember throughout the years just stopping by the house to hang out with him and His lovely wife Pam Just to chat. I am sincerely sorry for all the family's loss. I continue to pray for peace for Craig, Dawn, Chris ,Pam and the whole family. Love you all.

kristen Cole - July 10, 2015 at 11:48 PM

KK

“ Kaitlyn And Caroline Kogler lit a candle in memory of Charles B. D'Alessandro

Kaitlyn and Caroline Kogler - July 10, 2015 at 02:36 PM

RL

“ Rosemary And Joe Lucido lit a candle in memory of Charles B. D'Alessandro

Rosemary and Joe Lucido - July 09, 2015 at 03:11 PM

LM

“ Linda Martelli lit a candle in memory of Charles B. D'Alessandro

Linda Martelli - July 08, 2015 at 08:22 PM

MN

“ So shocked and sorry. The last time we saw Charlie was when he was doing what he loved most--being with his family. It was Christmas Eve at Craig's home and Charlie was enjoying the great food, fun and most of all, the kids and family. Life with Charlie was always an adventure. Sincere condolences to Pamela and the whole family.

marilyn nomkin - July 08, 2015 at 11:07 AM

DG

“ Dawn Gerrol lit a candle in memory of Charles B. D'Alessandro

Dawn Gerrol - July 08, 2015 at 10:54 AM

DG

“ Dad,
Words can not express the overwhelming pain I feel in my heart right now. I love you and can't believe your gone. You were always there for Anna and I when we needed you most and I'll always love you for that. All we had to do was call you anytime day or night, and you would jump right up and grab your keys and go. Thank you for loving Anna so deeply and being more than just "grandpa" to her. She loved you with all her heart and she misses you tremendously. Please rest in peace and don't worry about us. I'll take care of everything. I love you Dad.

Dawn Gerrol - July 08, 2015 at 10:52 AM