“ Charlie was a lovely kind caring man I was honored to call friend. So many many years ago we worked on same team. Charlie was someone I always will remember as! God speed my friend! Now you are out of pain and free. Most importantly you are with Kelly and you'll both watch over Cathy. 💙🙏💙🙏

My brother was very, very special. Anything you needed fixed or anything you needed to know, Charlie could fix it and fix problems. He was amazingly skilled, but even more, he took care of his brothers and sister without being asked. He put food in our refrigerator, a couple bucks in my pocket and made sure my Mom had gas in the car to get to work. He was amazing and is terribly missed. Love you always, your sister.
