“ Your dad was a great man. Even when the chips were down, he would find the bright side and make it past what ever curve life had thrown at him. I will miss his contagious laughter and his sense of humor. ”

“ My heart is broken. Life didn't come with a manual or a book to explain how to deal with everything thing you'll face as you live it. I always thought you'd live forever or at least longer then you did. I thought with some of the things i have experieced that i knew the worst hurt that i'd ever want to know. I was wrong. When you passed, part of me died with you. It's a pain i wouldn't wish on my worst enemy. It fills the depths of your soul. Doesn't leave room for much else. I love you so much and with out you there is a void that will never be filled. I only hope that i make you proud and that you will watch over all of us. Happy Birthday Dad!

“ *My world has changed. Not sure how to start this chapter in my life. I feel numb like I am in a nightmare that won't end.
Your smile or hearing I love you sugar.
Those thing I will never hear again.
I just hope you are at peace and shining down helping us to remember you.
I will always love you. I miss you so much dad.*

“ My heart is broken, this world doesn't feel the same with out you in it. I'm in a room full of people but, inside I'm screaming. It wasn't suppose to be this way. It was way too soon. The tears sneak up on me, I feel like I'm in a nightmare I can't wake up from. You were the best father I can ask for. You alway tried to make people happy, help and take care of people. It is a devastating loss to many, my only hope now is that you can watch over and help us heal. I will love and raise your grand children in the best way I know how. I can only hope that I make you proud. The night you passed, part of me went with you. I love you always and forever 💔
