

Charles J Shendok

July 26, 2016

Charles J. Shendok

72, passed away unexpectedly on July 26, 2016. Charlie was born in Hackensack, N.J. on Dec. 31, 1943 and moved to St. Petersburg in 1970. Charlie worked as a certified

ASE automotive tech in St. Pete Beach and Pasadena. Upon retiring he worked part-time at Mastry Engine Center. His favorite saying was ♦I can fix anything except a broken heart.♦

Charlie loved anything with an engine, especially fast boats and NASCAR. He was a member and volunteer at Pasadena Community Church. Charlie is preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Ronald. He is survived by his wife Janet of 30 years; sons Kevin (Marcie) of Kissimmee, FL and Marc (Danielle) of Acworth, GA; grandchildren Brooke, Chase and Madison; sister Joyce Molinari (Charles) of NJ; and many other family members and friends. A Celebration of Charlie♦s Life will be held at Pasadena Community Church 227 70th Street, S.

on Saturday, August 6, 11 A.M. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to the American Cancer Society or Angel Outreach Ministry at Pasadena Community Church.

“Doug Dykens - Friend posted a condolence Janet and family Charlie will be sorely missed. Always with a smile and joking around. He would always call me "Dougie D" or "Dickins" that was just his way. Best auto mechanic I've ever known. I'm sure he will be checking out every NASCAR track on the circuit from the best seat in the house. Godspeed my friend!
