“ Tiffany - Friend posted a condolence Preston, What a trooper you were! I look up to you in so many ways. You always had a smile on your face and a awesome attitude, (people should envy you)! You were a great friend even in 5th grade when we really didn't know what the word "friend" meant! May you watch over all of us and be our guide. May you rest in peace and know that you will forever be in our thoughts!

“ Jane Hiller - Client of Barb's posted a condolence I did not know Preston, only though his picture on Barb's desk and from her speaking of him. I'm so sorry for the family's loss - it sounds like he was a great person to know. A saying goes "if someone or something is rememberd by just one person, then they are never really gone". Preston is remembered by many, even those who did not know him directly. My thoughts are with Barb and her family. Take care.

“ Lauren Towriss - His Sister posted a condolence I was sitting in school today and I was thinking to myself: "There is just no way I can get through the week." And then I thought "Preston could." And then I started thinking about when grandpa was pastoring at first church and I would sit with him and Barb. Preston, always had me lean on the pew like Titanic. He would say "Do the Titanic Lauren." and for some reason he thought it was the funniest thing. He would also have me raise my hand up in the air like all the other elder folks would raise their hands to praise and worship God and preston would grab my arm and wave it in the air and then he would laugh. He would say "Lauren put your hand in the air. Do it." And when I did (even though at the time I didn't understand what it meant) he laughed. Preston was a wonderful and great brother. He always had something funny to say and he was always there to just hang out. He never beat me up like my other brothers did. Haha. He was my Mac-N-Chesse, brownie buddy. My other brother told me the other day, "When I was away for all those years Preston took care of you in a way that I wasn't able to and for that I thank him." I miss him greatly, but I am so blessed to have even known him, to have even met him, to have even grown up with him. But, I know he is walking the streets of gold and I know thats where he wants to be, and thats where he is. Praise God.

“ Holly & Bert McCarren - Family Friend posted a condolence I remember Preston when he was just a little boy running around in the back field playing with my children. He struggled and succeeded through a difficult life. Barb you are the strongest mother I have ever known. God guided you and Preston through life. Now God called Preston home but HE will still be there to guide you. We love you and keep you in our prayers daily.

“ Erin Atheney - Friend posted a condolence I only met Preston a few times but felt I knew him since he was a very little boy. His mom is a dear friend and when I think of her I think of family. I know how much she loves Preston and how dedicated she was/is to him. He is probably the strongest person I ever met my whole life followed closely by his mother. My condolences for your loss and all my love to you Barb and your loved ones. You're in my prayers and my heart. Knowing you and Preston has made me a better person. For that, I thank both of you!! All my love, Erin

“ Mark, Tonya & kids - Uncle, Aunt & Cousins posted a condolence Little did we know that day that God would call you name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide. And though we cannot see you, you are always on our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.
