“ I worked with Charlie at LPi back in the 90's.
He was a kind and gentle man., but the one thing I love the most
was his sense of humor.
Even in the worst of situations he could make you laugh. I loved his spirit.
My deepest sympathy to his family.

“ I worked with Charlie for a short time at LPi and in that short time I found him to be a good man. A very humerus person too. The world will miss him.
