

Christine M. Corsie

February 20, 1968 - October 6, 2025

Christine Marie (Stram) Corsie, Age 57 of Orlando, Florida and formally of Redford Township, Michigan passed away on October 6th, 2025. She was born on February 20th, 1968 to her parents the late Fred and Dorothy (Nee, Lang) Stram.

Christine was survived by her husband Rob and their one pride and joy, daughter Anelise.

Christine was loved and will be greatly missed by her siblings Deb, Mike, Craig, Bruce (Pat), Karl (Jeanette), Paul (Mindy), and Patricia Stram (pre-deceased). Christine was also the loving aunt to 12 nieces and nephews. She was the youngest of eight children growing up in a loving household with help being raised from her siblings. Relocating to Florida from Michigan as a teen to start high school in a new environment complete with a lot of time spent with friends at the beach that was still her favorite place to be. She worked for several Law Firms in Orlando and was held in high regard for her work ethics and made a lifetime of friendships she held so dear.

Christine was passionate about all the arts, involved in Jazz, Ballet, Hip-hop dance from an early age to becoming a professional Dancer and Cheerleader as a young adult. While pursuing her passions, Christine was determined to complete her education graduating with honors with a Legal Studies degree from University of Central Florida.

Christine was a loving, passionate mother to Anelise and was her main priority in life. She was committed to her morals, faith, devoted and enjoyed the finer things in life.

Psalms 34:18 "The Lord is close to the Broken Hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit".

A Celebration of life will be held at Lake Ivanhoe Park, October 26th, 2025 @ 1:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks donations be made to anything for Kitties and Puppies or Special Olympics.
