

Christine C. Ray

December 4, 1929 - October 12, 2017

Christine C. Ray, loving wife of Jeffrey T. Ray passed away on October 12, 2017. They were married 68 years. Pre-deceased by their son Kenneth Ray and her sister Margaret Godbold. Survived by daughter Sheila L. Beck (Charles), grandchildren Kimberly Diaz (Marco), Brenda Dugger (Brian), Kelly Gross (Jason), Great grandchildren Nathan and Alyssa Diaz, Nephew Dennis Waters (Gail), Great niece Sherry McNeal (Dan), Great nephew Michael Waters.

Early in Chris's life she traveled abroad to be with Jeff while he was serving in the Air Force in Japan. After returning to the states, they started raising a family in Winter Park, FL. They attended the United Methodist Church. Family time was precious to them and as they moved to Longwood, FL Chris continued to play cards and entertain the lifelong friends she had made. She had a talent for sewing, painting, and many crafts.

There will be a service held at DeGusipe Funeral Home on Saturday, October 21, 2017 at 10:00 AM, Chris will be buried in Winter Park.

Tribute Wall

“ Sweet Solace Spray was purchased for the family of Christine C. Ray.

---

October 19, 2017 at 04:50 PM

“ Christine was a wonderful lady always waved to me every Wednesday morning when we would do her lawn for her and Mr. Ray. I loved to hear her stories of her travels I haven't seen her in a while but I will remember her as a sweet lady. My deepest Sympathy for The Ray Family. Ted & Sara Sams aka Total Lawn Maintenance

---

Mr. & Mrs. Ted Sams - October 18, 2017 at 09:50 PM