“ Our hearts are filled with sorrow and our thoughts are with you and your family at this time of deep sadness.

*["Native American Prayer"
I give you this one thought to keep -
I am with you still - I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the sweet uplifting rush,
of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone -
I am with you still in each new dawn.]

“ To Jenny & Awilda, German, Family,

While the loss of a loved one is never easy, even when anticipated, it is most certainly the hardest when they are taken from us too soon. Your recent loss of your son who has left us at such a youthful age is definitely in the category of those hard losses for which there is so painful a reminder of what might have been. We offer our sincere condolence and deepest sympathy on your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers and the comfort in knowing that your loss is felt by many, help you through this difficult time. I ask for God's blessings on you and your wonderful family. May you find the courage and strength to move forward in peace and confidence and in knowing that his was a life well-lived.

Yours In Peace,

Cookie and Pito

Jenny n German.....when there are no words to give you comfort and relief.....The Lord is beside each one of you holding on to your hands and letting you know that everything will be alright. You might not understand it now but you will be reunite again in the future. Why? Don't ask. Just give the Lord thanks for having your son a few yearsloving....caring and being the happiest family for him. You will all soon be seen again. I can say all this cause my heart is hurting much more remembering my lost. I love you all. God Bless You.....Lissy Vilanova ❤️
