“ My sadness in the Bishop's passing comes not only from the fact that he will no longer be with us, but also from the fact that I had so little time spend with him as we only came together late in his life. My joy found in his passing is that he is now with the Lord that he served so well and loved so much, and that what little time the Lord gave me with him meant finding a spiritual leader that gave me so much encouragement, support, kindness and great advice. My life and ministry were greatly enhanced thanks to the good Bishop, and I am glad that we a now have another true saint to offer prayers for us in the presence of almighty God.
