

Clementina "Clara" Moavero

September 19, 1920 - April 7, 2012

Clementina (Clara) Moavero currently of Winter Park, Florida, died unexpectedly on Saturday, April 7, 2012, while visiting a friend in Arizona. She was a long-time Bronx, New York, resident.

Born on September 15, 1920 in New York to Concetta and Leonardo Maglione, Clara was a devoted mother, sister and friend. Her motto was "Enjoy yourself, it's later than you think". She loved life and was always ready to join in the action – be it Winter Park AARP, RSVP, Bingo, knitting hats and pitching in to help the less fortunate, or visiting family and friends.

She is survived by her children, Frank M. (Laraine) Moavero and Patricia M. (James Cunningham) Paul; her grandchildren, Stacy Moavero and Rhonda Rosario; her sister Lucy (Albert) Vereeken; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank J. Moavero; sisters Rose (Dewey) Daino and Marie (Joseph) Cillo; and brothers Anthony (Rose), Matteo (Anita), and Dominick (Carmela) Maglione.

Clara touched the lives of many. Family and friends in Florida are invited to attend a memorial service on Saturday, April 28, from 12 noon to 2 p.m. at DeGusipe Funeral Home, 9001 N. Orlando Avenue, Maitland, FL. Those in New York can attend a mass celebrating her life on Tuesday, May 1, at 11 a.m. at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church in the Bronx. Her remains will be interred at Woodlawn Cemetery, Bronx, N.Y.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to St. Jude's Children's Research

Hospital or Ronald McDonald House Charities.
