In 1998, Connie moved to Orlando, FL to be closer to her son Thomas and sister, Lori. There, she found her calling working as a leasing agent. She excelled in this position winning several awards. she did in all her jobs and worked until she was unable to do so due to cancer treatments in 2011.

She first battled breast cancer in 1994, again in 2006, and succumbed to it in 2011. She always kept a positive attitude and inspired the lives of everyone she came in contact with. She truly was an angel on earth and now has taken her place in heaven.
