

Corey Jameison Allicock

January 27, 1987 - December 13, 2015

Corey Jameison Allicock, 28 of Casselberry, Florida passed away Sunday, December 13, 2015. Mr. Allicock was born January 27, 1987 in Winter Park, Florida to Allan and Judith Allicock.

Corey Jameison Allicock was born on January 27, 1987. As a child he was gregarious and loving, traits that would define him throughout his life. Music was as an essential part of Corey as was his bright smile and consistently optimistic perspective. From when he was a child performing in piano recitals and impressing audiences to being an adult and jamming out to punk, hip hop and a myriad of other genres. Corey was pure joy. He took the greatest glee in the simplest of activities. Be it picking out ice cream or entertaining his countless friends; Corey delighted in all of it.

Probably the most famous Corey Story is his 25th birthday. On the spur of the moment, Corey decided to throw a party that turned into THE party. He invited a band and upwards of 30 people. This number quickly ballooned and soon they were charging people to enter the event. There was Corey in the midst of it all. Dancing, laughing and celebrating with close friends and complete strangers. What started out as a simple birthday in the middle of nowhere became the party of a lifetime with over 500 people in attendance.

Corey had fun around the clock. Whether he was at work or at home. He enjoyed skateboarding, which he would do either to and from work or just around his neighborhood. He played video games, wrote and read. At work, he was a technical support agent for Apple, he assisted customers with their various issues. Sometimes, his outgoing and friendly demeanor would turn these business interactions into long lasting friendships. Corey took everyone at face value and trusted people simply because he believed in them.

Corey Allicock always strived to see the positive side. He believed in learning from the bad times and appreciating the good times. He believed there was nothing you couldn't achieve with a positive mental attitude. He was always at the ready with a smile, a kind word, his familiar giggle and a good time. He loved indiscriminately and with his whole being. Those of us fortunate enough to know him will never forget him. Corey is survived by: Father: Allan Allicock, Mother: Judith Allicock. Siblings: Greg, Glenn, Warren, Craig, Mia. Uncles: Albert, Ivan, Patrick, Hillary, Carlos, Egbert, George, Prescott, Joseph and all their families. Aunts: Thelma, Patricia, Magna, Claire, Margaret and their families.

“ *My sincere best wishes to the Allicock Family...
With regards to Corey, I worked with him a few years.. At my age, I thought I had met everyone & seen everything.. Ha ! then I met Corey !
What an amazing force of energy and enthusiasm ! So full of life, he often forgot he was at work.. lol
Corey inspired everyone with his ability to Always have a Happy Face and be positive. I / everyone will certainly miss him. We need more people like Corey.
His parents & Family have done an awesome job of raising such a fine person.
Rare this day & age...

“ I worked with Corey for over a year and never had a day that I wouldn't say to myself, "Man, I LOVE that guy"! He was almost always upbeat, energetic with a positive can do attitude, and that is someone to emulate. I'm happy to have known him and I wish all the best to his family.

“ The first time I meet Corey, he was introduced to me by my daughter Samantha and my son Rick. He would come over eat dinner with us and would jist come over. He began calling me mom. And, when we moved away I didn't see him anymore but my children kept in touch with him and told me he was still loving music and piercings. I'm truly sorry for the loss of a beautiful soul God has a angel in heaven. May God and his angel Corey watch over you.

“ When I met Corey, all I could think about was how incredibly positive his energy was and how his personality was magnetic. It was crazy how we always ended up in the same places and always were drawn to each other, like I had so much more fun when I realized he was at the place I was. Everyone loved Corey and I will never forget how hilarious he was, we used to make everyone laugh together and you had to be there to really understand this but, he had the greatest laugh, it would pull you out of whatever funk you were in. I'm gonna miss how he influenced everyone around him to be happy.

“ i remember the very first time i met corey at the bar i used to work at. we quickly found out our favorite show was without a doubt Adventure Time. So from then on, his nickname was Finn and he called me Fiona. Every time I was working and I heard "FIOONAAAA!!!" it would make me smile so big and we'd all have fun. It was like the entire energy in the bar would change from a dreary feeling to a bright and happy energy all because of his radiant positive vibes.

“ *The first time I talked to Cory was on the phone. Jennifer told him I was having problems with my computer, I-pad or computer. I really don't remember which one. He was so helpful and kind to me. I liked him instantly and I knew I always would. I was hoping to meet him when I came to Fl. And also hoped he and Jennifer would get married some day. What I loved most about him was his love for our daughter Jennifer. From his posts I read on Facebook he had great love and respect for her. He will always be in our hearts. “ Corey I will miss your smile. They are in the pictures forever. You made your mom laugh with every gray hair you gave her. She'd smile and say "that's Corey". You left heart filled with joy with the people that knew you - more then most can say. I will see you again; and as the gentleman you are, please hold the door open for me, your mom and your sister as we enter the gates home. God has blessed you with a wonderful family, and you blessed them with wonderful memories. Whisper my name to our Lord for me. Peace, Lynne Speroni
