“ Stephanie DuChemin - Granddaughter posted a condolence Grandma, I've been putting off writing my last goodbye because it makes it real to me. I know that your parents along with Uncle Walter and Warren were waiting for you with open arms at Heavens gate. You are so loved and going to be missed so much. I know you are in a better place now, but it doesn't make it any easier. We love you so much. Love Stephanie, Mike, Belle, Abby, Landyn and Deacon

“ Sonya Pruitt - Daughter posted a condolence Mommy, I don't want to say good bye to you. You fought a hard battle and showed how tuff you were even doctors were amazed. You always said" I'm small but mighty" and that you were. You have been a great mom, grandma / great grandma and wife for Craig. I know it's not suppose to be a "good-bye" but see you later . No more pain or suffering but dancing and walking the golden path . I will see you later and know you will be waiting for me with open arms . Until I see you again. Love you forever and Rest In Peace. Love your daughter Sonya & Earl xoxoxo

“ Quentin den Braber - Son posted a condolence If Roses grow in Heaven" If Roses grow in Heaven Lord, please pick a bunch for me. Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me. Tell her that I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile. Because remembering her is easy, I do it every day, but there's an ache within my heart that will never go away. you will forever be in my heart and remembered always. you are forever in my thoughts and Prayers love your son, Quentin
