“ In finding acceptance of his passing, I continue to admire more strongly that Curt treated his friends, his coworkers, the players he coached and his community with the special heart he shared with his family. Curt had such a personal touch with his genuine sincerity, care and appreciation, I had no choice but to serve the programs/products he managed to the best of my ability. Curt's passion to succeed was so contagious, it was hard to feel negative about the programs he led.

Although I have not met most of his family, I feel like I know each of you well. Be proud of your son, brother, husband and father because he shared his love and his pride for you in plenty conversations.

“ Curt will really be missed at Northrop and everywhere else. I worked with him closely for many years, and always liked his style. His caring attitude was always appreciated as he stopped by each morning to say hi, and ask how the family was doing. He took care of his team mates, bringing in donuts or bages, and treating us all well. He really demonstrated that he cared about us as co-workers and as people. He will truly be missed. My condolences to his family. I know how much he loved you all, but take comfort in knowing he is looking over you still. Heaven is a brighter place today with Curt there. We'll miss you, Curt!

“ Words can not describe the shock and sadness I felt when I received the news of Curt's passing from his colleague Paula Pease. Tears filled my eyes and my heart ached for his family and friends as I read the posts of Al McKenna and Joe Vazquez about Curt's humor, friendship and heart. I was reminded that I would not know any of these wonderful people if t were not for Curt. I work with an International student exchange program and 5 years ago another friend and neighbor Julie Keating introduced me to Curt as a potential host. He said yes without hesitation, and from that moment on went into action recruiting half the neighborhood! His enthusiasm was contagious. Joe will especially remember this as he was convinced via text, while on vacation. I actually took his application from an airport layover in Morocco. Curt was amazing and I will always be grateful for his support. Because of that support I not only had the privilege of knowing Curt and his wonderful family, but many other wonderful and caring families. I have lost track of the number of foreign students who have had amazing experiences in that area over the years since thanks to Curt and his "connections.”

Curt was a true giver and it was reflected in everything he did. His passion for life, his family and friends was evident to anyone who knew him. If you saw Curt you could be assured you would be greeted with a smile. His passing is a loss to the entire community and I am sure will leave a hole in the heart of many. I am also sure that they have been blessed with many precious memories to fill it with.

To Laurie and his amazing sons; You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Phone rings..."Hey Maaaannn!" says Curt, "Curt-Bob!" says Joe. That's how every conversation started. How I'm going to miss hearing your voice say those words. I'm going to miss sharing a little "whish-key" (even the peaty ones!), smoking a stogey and talking about travel, politics, religion and of course, getting kicked off the soccer field for our overzealous critiquing of the officials. I'm going to miss going to outdoor concerts, movie nights in the backyard and everything else that you did to bring our cul-de-sac group together.

The funny thing is...I know you're probably thinking, "what's all the fuss about?!?" but for me, you were, and always will be one of my dearest friends. I'm going to miss you so very much.

*I love you man,
Joe Vazquez*

“ There are NO words that can even begin to describe what a GREAT person Curt Miller was during his short time here on earth. No doubt he touched more lives than we can begin to count and continues to touch us all as he watches down on us from above. The only comfort we can take in his passing, is knowing that God chose him as an Angel to watch over us. He was dedicated and devoted to everything and everyone he knew (Most of All His Family). He will be MISSED by ALL. C - Caring, U - Understanding, R - Respectful, T- Touching.

“ My deepest sympathies to the Miller Family. I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I worked at Northrop Grumman for 22 years of which the majority of them were working with Curt. He had the best attitude all the time. He had great stories always to tell and was a great friend to all. I know he will be gretly missed by many. If everyone in the world were half as caring as he the world would be a million times better.

Also I want his boys to know that he loved each and everyone of you and was so proud of you all. We shared many stories about our kids while waiting for meetings to start and he really was so very proud of you all.

“ *To the Miller family,
It is with the deepest sympathies that we extend our sorrows. Curt was a good, honest man and I never heard him have a bad word to say about anyone. He was a positive, enthusiastic guy that always had a smile on his face and could bring energy to the room he entered. I am both proud and glad to have known him for the short time he spent on this Earth.
Our prayers go out to all his family and friends who will certainly miss him.*

“ Our deepest condolences to the entire Miller family as they mourn Curt's sudden and unexpected death. Curt will always be remembered as a most generous and compassionate man who cared deeply about his family and friends. Curt's humor and distinctive laugh are eclipsed only by the love he showed toward everyone in his life. I will miss Curt deeply. The community has lost a gentle soul who loved life, was devoted to his family, and was always quick to share his time and many gifts. God's peace, my friend.

“ Goodbye my friend. I'll miss your warm smile and wonderful laugh. I'll miss your handyman skills, and your seemingly never ending list of odd jobs and home-improvement projects. I'll miss borrowing tools and trading lawn equipment. I'll miss your kindness and the love and support you always gave my kids. I'll miss sharing single malts and cold beers. I'll miss movie nights and our group dinners. I'll miss the way you loved to side with my wife, when I was too dumb or stubborn to yield. How many times did you have to say "What were you thinking?!" to me as you laughed about the mischief you had caused? I'll miss the way you enjoyed close friends and quiet moments. I'll miss the way you always put everyone else's problems and needs above yours. If I had an ounce of your thoughtfulness, I would be honored. I'll miss making funnel cakes with you and the Easter egg hunts, too. Most of all, I'll miss your friendship and your friendly ear. You were always there to listen or to offer help or assistance anytime, anywhere. I know you are in Heaven and I know that is good, but for those of us who were blessed to get to know you, the pain of your loss is just too much bear. I know if you were here, you'd provide a shoulder to cry on and an encouraging word to carry us on. For me, it will be 23 years of memories that gets me through - some day. Good bye my friend - you will be missed....
