“ So many great adventures with Damien! It was great to see him so excited to race at Sebring Speedway - was looking forward to racing against him one day. Say hi to Dale Earnhardt, I'm sure he could give you a couple of pointers. Although he may not be with us physically for the next grand adventure, he will always be a brother and the wildest part of our pack. Much love - Tim

“ *Damien was my first roommate when I set out on my own, he and his Dad welcomed me with open arms, with that famous Damien smile and always positive can-do attitude. It was always amusing to watch him watch the Dallas Cowboys during the Troy Aikman - Emmitt Smith years and the way that he would launch his cap across the room when they made a bad play. It was even more amusing to watch his love-hate relationship with my cat Rebecca cuz apparently neither one of them liked to watch each other sleep. Damien would get home late from working and launch my cat across the room cuz she was on HIS side of the couch, she would then wait till he fell asleep and rake her front claws down his leg forcing him to scream, shout profanities, jump up and go to sleep in his bedroom, where she would resume sleeping on HER side of the couch... but it didn't end there, cuz if he left the door open Rebecca would then sneak into his room and again rake her claws and launch Damien out of his own bed! Those two put on quite a show for our entertainment and many of our friends were witnesses. It would have made great reality TV, if it was invented back yonder. Those days were some of the best days in my life. Thank you Damien.*
