“ Until we meet again, my love. You were always such a beautiful person inside and out and you cared about others so much that you captivated everyone you came into contact with. So many people, none more so than myself, will miss the comfort you always gave through your words and presence. I always thought we had decades to come of enjoying each other's company and growing old together. I will miss you dearly and will spend the rest of my life honoring who you were and keeping your spirit alive for your family, friends and especially your children.

“ Danielle. My friend. My closest friend. I hate it that you're not with us. You left way too soon. In your honor I hope I can be a blessing to those you loved the most...your children. You cared and loved mine as much as your own. I hope I can do the same for yours. please let them know I'm here..anything anytime. Just like you were. I know you are reading this right now and i also know you are with your children always. You see them grow, love, make mistakes, be successful, have babies your beautiful grandchildren. You'll be there. In spirit. Please let them know they can't give up anything...especially their clothes, house and breath ... You are always with them. You know they loved you so much! Till we meet again My friend.

The t-shirt that she is wearing is one of my old bands. She probably had a closet full of band t-shirts. Gone too soon.

“ Mom,
I know you're reading this. I want you to know that I will never stop thinking, and wondering about you. The things you didn't get to see me to do. I want you to know this. Sometimes, I like to play this little game in my head, where I give up something, just to spend another minute with you. The house I live in, my clothes, everything, and even my life. Just to spend another minute with you. I love you mom.

“ When I got the phone call from your sister about your passing, my disbelief was overwhelming. As it started to sink in, all I could think about was your family. Your husband, children, brothers, sisters, and parents. My heart goes out to all of them. My thoughts and prayers are with them all. You will be greatly missed by all who knew you. Heaven just got a little sweeter because you are there. Till we meet again there, you will live on in hearts of those of us that loved you.

We lived together, had babies together, loved and laughed together - for that I am grateful and it comforts me when I realize I'll never come to your home again and have a cup of tea. Never go to another downtown concert together. Never be able to call you up and ask, "did your kids do this at that age?" Never will you yell at me again to peel out of another parking lot. Never laugh with each other again so hard no sounds emanate from our shaking bodies which strangely mimic a bowl of jello. All these things and more...never again, but I will FOREVER remember, treasure our friendship and therefore in my heart you will live. I know your rocking with the angels in heaven...make sure you hold the pearly gates open so you can sneak me in - till I see you again. Love Teresa & John “ 32 years, not enough. You are just as much a sister to me as if we were blood. I got to pick my sister. My life will not be complete without you. I love you. Save a seat for me. We'll have a lot of catching up to do.

“ I don't even know where to start. The phone call that tore my heart apart came early in the morning, lives were forever changed for so many in an instant. We always think we have more time, that there will always be a tomorrow for another dinner, another movie on the couch, another gab session on the phone, one more show. That time was stolen from us, stolen from your beautiful children and loving husband, stolen from your family and friends. I will forever cherish our friendship and our time together. You were truly a special soul. Kind and thoughtful, hilariously funny and sarcastic, beautiful inside and out. You and Marc have a village in your friends and family. The village is surrounding your children and your family with love and support right now. I write this through tears but with a grateful heart...I'm grateful for my time in your orbit as you shined like the sun.

“ To Dani a very beautiful, sweet, loving, and caring person, cousin, sister, friend and mother. Thank you for being a sister to me. I remember growing up we would always have tea parties, play dress up, playing dolls, games , watch 21 Jump Street, bake brownies, make some awesome macaroni and cheese etc. Then as teenagers our lives went into different directions and I so regret that. But I was so extremely happy we found each other again 15 years ago! It's so wonderful that you now have 3 children that are beautiful inside and out just like their mommy. And a wonderful husband! You will always be in my heart and on my mind! Love and miss you Dani Always! Aunt Chris and Uncle Jack, I'm very sorry for your lost. I love you guys and everyone. I'm here for you all. Love Sheryl Cornelius
