

Davendra Patel

July 31, 1953 - July 26, 2021

Davendra Patel, 67, passed away on July 26th 2021. While his passing was sudden, he was surrounded by his family. He was born in Kampala, Uganda, where he spent his childhood. He moved to London where he attended Kings College earning a master's in Pure and Applied Chemistry. While in London, he married Jayshree and they had 2 sons, Mehul and Shivam.

He later moved to Florida with his family and had his own business for many years.

Most recently, he worked at Sanford airport, where he made many friends and had the opportunity to meet many people. He spoke fondly of his time there.

His kind and loving nature was Davendra's most memorable quality. He will always be remembered for his calming voice, his friendly demeanor, and his kind disposition.

Davendra is survived by his wife Jayshree, his sons Mehul (Jessica) and Shivam, and his granddaughter, Kajal.

“ our dear and sincere sympathies for the unexpected and too early passing of our Deven masa. Our memories of him whilst he lived here in the UK are so fond and never forgotten. We send our love to Nanimasi and our brothers Mehul and Shivam and Jess and Kajal. We join you today with a deep sorrow in our hearts as we say our final farewell to our masa, may his soul rest in peace. Wish we could have been there with you all.

“ Davendrakumar you were the most humble person I have come across. Although we knew each other since you were 12 years old and then married my childhood best friend Jayshree it was a match made in haven . Today you are going on a journey which we will be following soon . Prayers to almighty to Welcome this pure soul and rest in peace until we meet again. Vatsla, Naresh and your Superwoman B.
