

David Bridgman Dunnan

May 14, 2015

David Bridgman Dunnan, 59, of St. Petersburg, left us to be with the Father on May 14, 2015 after a long illness. Born December 3rd, 1955, the son of Malcolm George and Jane Bridgman Dunnan. A graduate of Northeast High School, Class of 1973, where he lettered in wrestling. Shortly after graduation he enlisted in the United States Air Force where he proudly served five years. Upon completion of his military service, he returned to Florida to be near his family. United in marriage September 1st, 1984 with Kathleen E. Hemming, they set up house and began their family. He pursued a career in the automobile industry as cars were a hobby of his. He followed his two favorite football teams, the Dolphins and the Buccaneers, and enjoyed camping with his family. His daughters would become the joy of his life. He loved the Lord and attended Park Place Wesleyan Church. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Daryl Bernice, and Kaitlyn May, a granddaughter, Kaiya Vahmi, his mother, a sister, Susan Dunnan, a brother, Malcolm ❖Chip❖ Dunnan, as well as extended family.

A memorial service is set for May 21st, 2015 at 7PM at Park Place Wesleyan Church in Pinellas Park. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to a charity of your choice in his memory.
