“ I'll miss Uncle Dave in so many ways. He's always been somewhat of a legend in my mind with his stories of living in Brazil, his time in Chicago and being a bus driver here, and his mission trips leading teams to work on all sorts of projects. I was always excited to see him. He's been such a constant and loving presence my whole life, there's a new empty spot now.

Two things I'll always remember him by are 1) he had the kindest happiest eyes, and 2) he could talk to anyone. There are many stories of all the types of people he spoke with and met over the years. I know we didn't agree on some political stuff, but that never stopped me from knowing he cared for me, and never stopped me from loving him as my uncle. Eric really liked him and enjoyed talking to him the few times they met. He really felt the special kind of love and genuineness that was unique to Uncle Dave.

Kim and Vicki, I'm so sorry you've lost your special dad. The love and experiences you shared through your lives are amazing. I know you'll cherish him always and will keep his memory alive with Dave and Jesse and all the grandkids and their kids to come! Auntie Laura, you and Uncle Dave had an epic life together. What a testament to everlasting love, commitment, humor, adventure, and dedication to family and God. I'm so sorry you weren't able to share many more years together. I know there is comfort for all of you in knowing you'll see him again, but it's still so sad to say goodbye.

All the best as you grieve together during this time. I hope the prayers and presence of family and friends provide good comfort and company for you. You're all in my heart, both Eric and I send our love.

Rest in peace Uncle Dave, you've earned it!
