

Dean Moffett

May 27, 2015

MOFFETT, Dean. June 5, 1929 - May 27, 2015. ♦ I know one thing which never dies: the reputation of each dead man. ♦ A man whose smile lit up a room, who meant it when he asked how you were. A man of many roles, many friends, and many stories to be shared by his wife of 50 years, 6+1 children, 1 son-in-law, a daughter-in-law, 1 grandson-in-law; and 6 grandchildren.

“ Victoria Rosado - educator posted a condolence I worked with Dean when he volunteered at Clearview Avenue Elementary quite a while ago but for many years. He was a real sweetheart and was one of the nicest, most cordial and warm-hearted individuals I have ever had the pleasure to know and to work with. His trains were his pride and joy. He loved the kids and especially loved working with them, reading with them and joking with them. Smiles were his thing and he always found a way to turn that frown upside down and bring a smile to everyone's face. That sparkle and twinkle in his eyes was unforgettable. He made me feel special. Thanks for sharing him with me and with everyone who's path he crossed. God bless...
