

Deborah "Debbie" Ann Kimbrough

August 20, 1953 - September 5, 2022

Deborah "Debbie" Ann Kimbrough (also known as Nini by her grandkids) passed away peacefully at AdventHealth Hospital in Winter Park on September 5, 2022 at the age of 69.

Debbie is survived by her son, Scott Kimbrough, grandson, Alexander Youts, granddaughter Kayla (Lex) Kimbrough, niece Heather Jones, and nephew, Trevor Cunningham. She is preceded in death by her parents, W.B. and Rose Cunningham and her brother, Jon Cunningham.

Debbie was born on August 20, 1953 in Groton, Connecticut to W.B. and Rose Cunningham. After moving to Orlando, Debbie found a career working at Lockheed Martin in the finance department. She graduated from UCF with a degree in Liberal Arts. Towards the end of her career and into retirement, Debbie worked with a group called 'Angels' that made quilts which were donated to local organizations such as troubled teen homes and NICU's. There is no funeral or service scheduled at this time.

“ Debbie and I worked together for many years. She was a very sweet lady who always had insightful questions and spoke her mind. She was a very kind hearted, thoughtful person who made baby blankets for many of our young coworkers who were having children and always had a stash of birthday cards that she would pass around to the team gathering wishes for the birthday person. Debbie was a good lady and will be missed. ”
