“ I first met DeborahLyn almost two years ago. From the first time i met her i noticed she had a child like wonder about her and such s big heart. She was always willing to lend a hand. She was a collector of many things, peacocks, Gator stuff, angels. If you ever visited her you would see she surrounded herself with collections of her lovely things. The first time i saw her place she proudly showed off her twins Rachel and Hannah. She was so proud of her girls, she was happiest when she was talking about them. She loved her girls so much. If there is one thing i can leave you with it is hope. She loved the Lord and that is our great hope. This is not goodbye, but see ya later.
