“Debbie and I worked together at Adventist Health System (now AdventHealth). I believe she started only a couple of months before I did. Because of her kindness and her willingness to share her knowledge, Debbie quickly became a friend and later a mentor. I will miss hearing her talk about her grandchildren and her vacations with David Jeremiah’s inspiration cruises.

And, of course, who can forget her contagious smile?

Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die;

“Working with you, side by side, in our cubicles, was the most fun I ever had working. You’d buy me a diet Mt. Dew bc you “loved to watch” me “cracked out on caffeine. I loved you then and I love you now. I miss you terribly. You were the only reason I lived through the death of my husband nearly 4 years ago. There are no words. I love you.
