“ Mama Deb I want to thank you for your friendship and love since we first met. I will always love you and Shorty! You are together again riding free in the winds of heaven, with all of our angels that watch over each and every one of us. I wish you peace. I also wish for courage for your family and "extended family" to live without your physical presence. Your love will last forever in our hearts. I will always regret not taking the time to learn how to bake bread with you and hug on you more while I had the chance.
