

DEBRA LYNN NERAD

April 27, 2012

Debra Lynn Alexander Nerad, 44, of Kenneth City, Florida went home to be with the Lord on Friday, April 27, 2012.

Debbie was born in Spokane, Washington on October 14, 1967 and moved to Florida with her family in 1973. She was the oldest of three siblings. She worked in the mortgage industry for approximately twenty years.

Debbie attended Calvary Chapel-St. Pete located in Pinellas Park, where she had volunteered in the book store.

She is survived by one daughter, Chelsey, one grandson, Jayden, her parents Patricia Johnson (Michael) and Dan Alexander (Laura), two brothers Scott (Tracy) and Todd, nephew Jacob, niece Tori and numerous aunts and uncles and cousins. She is also survived by her two loving dogs, Muphyn and Lola.

She will be laid to rest after a brief service in the chapel. Time of service will be at 2 p.m. on Thursday, May 3, 2012 at Calvary Catholic Cemetery located at 5233 118th Avenue North, Clearwater, Florida.

“ Will Thomas - Friend & Co-Worker posted a condolence My heartfelt condolences to the family of Debra. I worked with Debbie for several years at MIC and found her to be one of the sweetest generous people I knew despite her struggles with health. She is at peace now and resides in comfort with the angels.

“ AnnMarie Hoambrecker - friend of Debra's posted a condolence Chelsey, I know you probably don't remember me but I used to work with your Mom. I used to make a little hide-out under my desk for you when you were little and would come to work with your Mom if you were sick. She loved you like crazy! She was such a sweet and kind person. I have only good & happy memories of her. I know she struggled with her health over the years and I hope she is at peace now and resting with the Lord. I am so very sorry for your loss. AnnMarie
