“ As Christmas comes near, Miss Debbie was on my mind. Her smile and cheerful attitude always greeted my husband and I when we came to volunteer. I was so grateful to know that our son got to see her smile every day. She is missed by many.

Tom, May God Bless and keep you all the days of your life.

“ The last time I saw you in person, you and Tom brought your tiny granddaughter Vanessa to visit us in St Petersburg. I regret we never connected again although I have continued to watch your family grow through social media. I will always remember your friendship and all the adventures we shared when we lived around the corner from each other in Presidential Lakes. Your children were like my children and you always treated mine like yours. We had many fun times making memories through the Girl Scouts for our daughters and their friends. All my love to Tom, Tracey, Toni, Nick and the rest of the family during this most difficult of times.

“ Deb was such a cheerful presence in our office at Harker-Wylie Elementary School. Her love for the staff and children were very evident. There was never a task that she couldn't handle or was ever seen as inconvenient. I am grateful for the occasions where Deb, a few of her family members and HW staff members went to Ocean City for the breast cancer walk in October. Her love of her family and Disney were quite evident in her conversations. She will be greatly missed . Thoughts and prayers are extended to her family.

“ I met Debbie "Nana" and the whole family on Toni's shower for Vanessa. Since then we had weekly Sunday dinners, Ness's Nutcracker , trips to Florida , and Disney World. Shopped until we dropped, she was there at the hospital when my grandson Jared was born when he was baptized, had his comunion...we did the same for Vanessa's life events. The last time I saw her and Tom, Tracey, Toni, Nicholas and the grand kids was on Vanessa's wedding to Hans. This was a life time of such Happy memories. Debbie I love you and shall miss you so much. I know that you are reunited with your Mom,Dad,and brother ,that you are no longer suffering but sweet loving lady it was far to soon. Until we meet again, all my love.
